ANNOUNCEMENTS AND TABLINGS

**=====

THURSDAY, 05 SEPTEMBER 2019

CHAMBER: 10H00

1. OBITUARIES (Item 2 on the Order Paper)

Honourable Members, it is with profound sadness that we formally note the passing away of:

- The first-year UCT student Miss Uyinene Mrwetyana who was brutally murdered inside the Clareinch Post office on August 24. Her gruesome death has sent shockwaves across the country and has highlighted the extent of women abuse and killings we face as a country;
- Four young children whose lives were cut short when their father allegedly hanged all of them in their home in Wyebank on Tuesday, 03 September 2019; and

- All other victims of femicide attacks countrywide.

As the Speakership and the Legislature, we wish to register our concern at the increase of femicide cases, attack on children and other vulnerable groups. This must be condemned at all levels. One life lost is one too many.

May we rise and observe the moment of silence for all departed souls.
