ANNOUNCEMENTS AND TABLINGS

=====

TUESDAY, 16 JULY 2019

CHAMBER: 09H00

1. OBITUARIES (Item 2 on the Order Paper)

Honourable Members, it is with profound sadness that we formally note the passing away of:

- Struggle veteran Ntate Lesiba “Ike” Maphoto, Maphoto was one of the first recruits of Umkhonto We Sizwe (MK) the ANC armed wing. In 1963, he was sent to the former Soviet Union for political and military training as part of the "Luthuli Detachment".

As an MK commander, he distinguished himself as a disciplined and fearless freedom fighter. He served 13 years in prison after being captured by enemy forces for his role in the Sipolilo Campaign;

- Struggle veteran Mr Amos Ndwalane, 70. The late Mr Ndwalane, from Lamontville Township, in Durban, was a freedom fighter who was due to be hanged after spending eight years on death row in the then Pretoria Central Prison (now named Kgosi Mampuru II) and only survived the noose by a mere seven days due to the unbanning of the ANC. Mr Ndwalane will be given an Official Funeral. His funeral will take place;
- Veteran actress Ms Nomhle Nkonyeni. Ms Nkonyeni has been instrumental and played a leading role, in shaping the arts and culture industry in South Africa and her contribution was recognised when she received the Order of Ikhamanga in Silver from the President of South Africa, amongst other accolades;
- Rugby Legend Mr James Small. Mr Small passed on last week Wednesday. He played as a winger for the Springboks and made his debut against the All Blacks in 1992. His final appearance was against Scotland in 1997 where he scored his 20th try, becoming the leading Springbok try scorer. He was also the leading try scorer in the 1996 Super 12 season; and
- Soccer legend Mr Marc Batchelor. Mr Batchelor was shot and killed last evening in what appears to be a professional hit. He had distinguished himself as a prolific striker for Kaizer, Chiefs, Orlando Pirates and Bafana-Bafana.
